Told by the Sea : Tales of the Coast. By F. FRANKFORT

MOORE. With Illustrations. Small octavo, cloth extra. Price 75c.

"'Told by the Sea' is a collection of stories very different in character, and only alike in merit. The earliest in order, which is entitled 'The Last Yarn of Our Cruise,' is a powerful, if rather sensational, narrative. That which follows, entitled 'Mr. Plassington's Journal,' is one of the cleverest comic sketches we have ever read. It absolutely overflows with drollery—genuine, irresistible drollery—and in the description of an old sailor whom it introduces shows a power of observation worthy of Dickens. If Mr. Frankfort Moore can write many stories like this, he will maintain a permanent place in literature."—Sunday Times.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

CHRISTMAS CARDS.

"Messrs. Marcus Ward & Co., who in all matters relating to binding and illumination are unequalled, carry their excellence of taste and their perfection of execution into the production of these kindly tokens."—World.

"Messrs. Marcus Ward are to be commended equally for excellent taste and beauty of execution."—Times.

"The Christmas Cards issued by Marcus Ward & Co. are to be recommended for their brilliancy of colours, correctness of design, and funny, curious, and elegant ways of conveying the wish of "A Merry Christmas" to the recipient."—Court Journal.

"The Cards are, as usual, designed with taste and skill, and especially the birds and butterflies and flowers, many of which are extremely beautiful."—Spectator.

"Messrs. Marcus Ward & Co. have earned so honourable a name in the publication of artistic works which exercise a truly educational influence on the young, that persons of taste, whatever their time of life may be, will anticipate the highest character of design in all the ornamental objects sent forth by this firm at Christmas."—Daily Telegraph.

"Their beautiful productions in this pleasing art have invariably taken foremost rank. . . . The Messrs. Ward are to be congratulated upon the great good they accomplish in thus improving popular taste for the beautiful."—Public Opinion.

"Instructive teachers as well as pleasant reminders of the friendly and family ties that are presumed to be stronger at Christmas than at any other period of the year. We are bound to compliment Messrs. Marcus Ward on their extremely charming Note Paper and Envelopes, also expressly prepared for Christmas. This firm is doing so much, and in so many ways, that it is very cheering to find all their productions essentially and entirely good."—Art Journal.

"Exceedingly beautiful, displaying great variety of design combined with the most exquisite taste in execution. The verses which they bear being genuine poetry, and, in most cases, the production of well-known writers."—City Press.

"The custom of sending Christmas Cards is evidently on the increase, and Messrs. Ward & Co. consult all tastes in the handsome collection they put before the public."—Lloyd's London Newspaper.

VALENTINES.

"They display the same elegance of design and carefulness of finish which we have had occasion to commend in their Christmas Cards."—Graphic.

"Are of the usual variety and artistic beauty, some of them being really exquisite little pictures, both in design and colour, and worthy of being preserved in an album. It should be mentioned also that the poetry is well selected."—Saturday Review.

"We have so often had occasion to praise Messrs. Ward & Co.'s publications, that it will suffice now to say that their latest productions show not only no falling off in taste and style, but, if anything, increased harmony and beauty."—Standard.

"Messrs. Marcus Ward & Co. preserve their distinctive excellence for beauty and elegance of design, and the admirable novelty they contrive to throw into their illustrations of the rites of this auspicious day."—Morning Advertiser.

"By the beautiful combination of colour, lace, and satin, very charming results are produced; whilst the pages of most of our love poets have been ransacked for those little touches of sentiment, without which Valentines lose half their charm."—Globe.

"Messrs. Marcus Ward & Co. have in some degree ennobled the Valentine by the originality and artistic excellence of the pictorial designs."—Illustrated London News.

EASTER CARDS.

"If anything could reconcile us to the innovation of Easter Cards, it would be the graceful designs of those issued by Messrs. Marcus Ward & Co."—Graphic.

"Marked by the exquisite taste which is the prevailing characteristic of their productions."—John Bull.

"Prettily designed and well executed."—Tablet.

"We cannot doubt that their exquisite cards, of which we have seen samples, will find a very large circulation."—Pictorial World.

MARCUS WARD'S CONCISE DIARIES.

For the Pocket—Published Annually—Lightest, Cheapest, Handiest, Best.

THE CONCISE DIARIES meet the universal objection to all other Pocket Diaries—their cumbersome and unnecessary weight in the pocket. They are beautifully printed in Blue and Gold, on a light, hard, metallic paper, and combine the following advantages:—

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. Maximum of Writing Space. | 4. Equal Space for Sundays. |
| 2. Minimum of Weight. | 5. Daily Engagement Record. |
| 3. Useless Matter Omitted. | 6. The Writing is Indelible. |

THE CONCISE DIARIES are made both in "Upright" and "Oblong" form, and in Three sizes of each form.

Only one part (Three Months) need be carried in the pocket at once.

All so-called "Useful Information," which few ever read, is excluded.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"By a capital arrangement, the maximum amount of writing space is secured in these handy little books, with the minimum amount of weight, by the simple expedient of changing the Diary every quarter, instead of only once a year."—Daily Telegraph.

"The Concise Diaries are singularly good in the four-part arrangement, and the finish of the leather-work leaves nothing to be desired, whilst a new patent bolt lock, which cannot readily be put out of order, stamps the present issue as the most complete series yet published."—Standard.

"The Diary pages are furnished separately in quarterly parts, . . . and are much smaller and handier than they would otherwise be. It is a very good plan."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"Elegant and tasteful little pocket-books, with movable diaries, divided into quarterly parts so as to save room. We have never seen anything better—if so good—of the kind."—Fun.

"The Concise Diaries are as convenient in form as they are beautiful in appearance."—Globe.

"Like everything published by this firm, the Concise Diary is handsome and handy. The Diary itself being divided into four parts, the well got-up Russia leather case, in which it is enclosed, makes the book much more eligible for the pocket than the majority of so-called pocket diaries."—Sportsman.

"The diary is in arrangement perfect for keeping a cash account, memoranda, and engagements, besides containing a deal of useful information. It is bound in a strong Russia pocket-book, making altogether as good a present as one would wish to give or receive on New-Year's Day."—Hour.

"Conspicuous for the taste displayed in their manufacture."—Morning Post.

"The idea is so simple, that the wonder is that nobody thought of it before."—Daily News.

Royal Irish Linen Paper.

MARCUS WARD & CO., SOLE MANUFACTURERS.

THE Royal Irish Linen Writing Papers, made from a raw material of Pure Irish Linen, maintain their reputation of long standing for excellence and reliability. They obtained Prize Medals at the International Exhibitions of London, 1862, and Paris, 1867, with special commendation in the Jurors' Reports.

Marcus Ward & Co.'s Writing Papers are now made in different qualities, bearing distinctive Water Marks, which may be observed by holding a sheet of the Paper against the light.

FIRST QUALITY.

THE Royal Irish Linen Papers are the finest that can be produced, being made from new unworn Linen cuttings. This material can only be obtained pure in the North of Ireland, where the Linen trade is the staple, to the entire exclusion of its inferior substitute, Cotton. No Rags or worn-out fabrics are used in the manufacture; but the pure Linen fibre, by means of perfected machinery, is turned into Writing Paper of unequalled strength and agreeable surface, suitable alike for gold, steel, or quill pens.

Water Mark

The Royal Irish Linen Papers bear this Water Mark in every Sheet. They are made in Two Shades—the old style CREAM SHADE, and the antique AZURE TINT. They can be had with two degrees of finish:—

"MILL FINISH."—A slightly rough surface, now much in favour, and suitable for bold writing.

"GLAZED."—A highly-polished surface, suitable for fine writing with fine-pointed steel or gold pens.

The ROYAL IRISH LINEN PAPERS are not higher in price than the ordinary "best quality" commonly in use.

SECOND QUALITY.

THE Pure Flax Writing Papers meet a demand created by the success of the ROYAL IRISH LINEN PAPERS for a similar Paper at a Lower Price. As this could only be produced from a Pure Flaxen Fibre, the material for it is found in "Flax Waste," the residue from the "hackling" process in Flax Spinning Mills. This excellent fibre, infinitely stronger than any description of "Rags," of which Paper is commonly made, is converted into the PURE FLAX PAPER by a process peculiar to the Makers.

Water Mark

The Pure Flax Writing Papers bear this Water Mark in every sheet. They are made in the unbleached CREAM SHADE, with a Middle surface (neither too rough nor too smooth), suitable for rapid writing and ordinary use.

For BUSINESS USE, the Pure Flax Paper is made also in the usual BLUE and CREAM varieties, and in the regular large sizes of Letter and Note Paper, &c., required for mercantile use.

The prices of the PURE FLAX PAPERS are very moderate, and within the reach of every one.

May be had of all Stationers; and, WHOLESALE ONLY, of MARCUS WARD & CO., LONDON, BELFAST, & PHILADELPHIA.
